who we are

we're just like you—strong, confident, sexy and resilient. we're defined by what we do and how we show up every day. we want to be remembered for how we make people feel, instead of how the world thinks we should look. we're proud of our organic, plant-based, cruelty-free products that work with what your mama already gave you. because you don't need work, you need no-bs body care that works.

show the world who you are. be comfortable in your own skin. we're already proud of you, and you should be, too.

with basd, it's good to be nakd.
